They Fought with This Gloves at the San co Athletic Club for $3,000 and the Pacific Coast Heavy-Weight Cham--Paddy Was Not in Good Condi--MeAuliffe Much the Better Man.

ISPECIAL TO THE WORLD.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 24 .- The rooms of the California Athletic Club, on Grant avenue, were crowded last night with sporting men and lovers of the art of self-defense, who had gone to see the fight with thin gloves between Paddy Ryan, ex-champion of the world, and Joe McAuliffe, champion of the Pacific coast, for a $1,000 purse, $2,000 outside money, and the championship of the Pacific coast.

The assemblage was representative, not only of what might be termed "gentlemanly" sporting men, but also of many branches of business. At least five millionaires sat upon raised wooden benches, and those who could draw their checks for sums having six figures were numerous. The five-figure men were there by hundreds.

As usual on such occasions there were number of preliminary contests.

"The next event will be the meeting of the gladiators," said Billy Jordan at 11.20 o'clock, and then the walls of the somewhat small room resounded with the wild applause of spectators.

A few minutes later Barney Doherty President of the club, who was McAuliffe's backer, entered the ring with Vice-President Fulda and said : "Gentlemen, as I am an interested party in the battle which is about to take place Vice-President Fulda will

THE MEN ENTER THE RING.

After a collection had been taken up for the heavy-weights entered the ring. Ryan tipped | days, and this year is no exception. the scales at exactly 190 pounds, five pounds accidentally struck his trainer, Patsy Carroll, | 300 pupils of the Sunday-school.

five days ago while boxing. Ryan was apparently in bad condition.

Joe McAuliffe jumped into the ring like a big, healthy boy. McAuliffe was in perfect trim. He weighed 214 pounds and was as trim. He weighed 214 pounds and was as hard as a rock.

Referee Hiram Cook, who was chosen on Thursday night by Barney Farley and Petsy Carroli, the representatives of the principals, having accepted his thankless position, that matter was disposed of at once. Ryan's seconds were Patsy Carroll and Young Mitchell. McAuliffe's seconds were Barney Farley and Jack McCauley, T. Gassman for McAuliffe and Jere Driscoll for Ryan were chosen time-keepers, and gloves weighing less than two ounces were tossed in the ring, PIRST BOUND.

As the men came forward for the first round, the advantage of McAuliffe's height and condition was quite discernable. Sparring for an opening was short. Ryan struck out with his left, only reaching McAuliffe's chest, and got away before he could be reached in return. McAuliffe was the next to lead without reaching, and Ryan went at him with a rush which was only stopped from terminating in a clinch by McAuliffe's right, which swung viciously and reached Ryan in which swung viciously and reached Ryan in the back of the bead. The blow was only half effective, owing to Ryan's arm breaking its force somewhat, but still its weight was such that it was Ryan's first turn towards defeat.

After that blow McAuliffe led a short one with his left, and Ryan closing in, they clinched. The cries of B"reak!" from the referee and fifty self-constituted ones on the coutside went unheeded then, as they did in every break after that until the termination of the mill, Ryan evidently being determined to punch while he had a chance.

Time being called, both men retired to their corners, McAuliffe looking serene and perfectly fresh, while Ryan's chest heaved like a bellows.

of the mill, Ryan evidently being determined to punch while he had a chance.

Time being called, both men retired to their corners, McAuliffe looking serene and perfectly fresh, while Ryan's chest heaved like a bellows.

SECOND ROUND.

On the call of time for the second round only a couple of feints were offered by each, when McAuliffe struck out straight with his left, his unusually long arm bringing up with a whack on Ryan's stomach between the open ribs. It was the blow of a giant, and only forRyan's good poise he would have gone to the ropes insteal, of only bouncing back a yard. He came up with a sickly smite and feinting with his left, followed it quickly with a vicious swinging right which again fanned the air, but in alarming proximity to McAuliffe's eith. The latter made a return swing with his right, also missing his opponent, whose head was lowered from the force of his own blow. The two men then came together and clinched, during which time both pommelled one another at short range until a dozen cries of "break!" were shouted. Rvan was fighting desperately, while his opponent was comparatively cool.

At this stage Ryan was seen to suddenly double up as though in great pain, but it was only for a second, when he straightened up after carrying both hands below his belt.

It was learned afterwards that his truss had slimed a little but he will be there and the evening will be spent in helter will receive chickens and needed clothing.

Con Tuesday evening in the chapel Kris. Kringle will be on hand and will pluck from a glorious Christmas tree gifts for all the children of the school. The parents will be there and the evening will be spent in helter will receive chickens and potatoes and needed clothing.

Conspicuous among the providers of these distance will be spent in helter and the evening will be spent in helter will receive chickens and potatoes and needed clothing.

Conspicuous among the providers of these children will receive chickens and potatoes and needed clothing.

Conspicuous among the pro

It was learned afterwards that his truss had slipped a little, but he recovered it before the greatest danger could happen.

McAuliffe made another pass and let out greatest danger could happen.

McAulife made another pass and let out straight with his left and before recovering he slipped and almost fell, but was up in a second. Ryan believed his opportunity good at that time and made a dash which proved most disastrous. McAulife's left went straight out with all the backing of his tall frame and countered Paddy on the mouth and down went the ex-champion. It was a terrible blow and when Ryan got up, inside of his ten seconds' allowance, he staggered and spat blood. Before McAuliffe could well follow up his advantage Ryan closed in on him and in the clinch the usual short arm blows were delivered, Kyan choosing his opponents head, while McAuliffe went for Ryan's wind.

At the end of the round McAuliffe was still fresh, while Ryan was evidently a whipped man.

THIRD AND LAST ROUND. The third and last round showed McAulifle to be a determined fellow who did not proto be a determined fellow who did not propose to allow any advantage to his opponent.
As the men came together he struck out with his straight left and on this occasion, like a number of others that followed, he only grazed Ryan's right ear, his long-arm passing over the Trojan's shoulder as far as the elbow. Ryan attempted another right hand swing which again fell short and before he recovered McAuliffe's right, with a swing, reached him on the side of the jaw, felling him heavily. The blow was the severest given in the fight and in the belief of all it was thought to be the settlement of the battle.
Ryan bravely got up inside the ten seconds.

Ryan bravely got up inside the ten seconds, but he was terribly dazed and apparently ob-livious that McAuliffe was coming upon him. He went to the ropes fifteen feet from his own

He went to the ropes fifteen feet from his own corner and seemingly was about to step out into the audience. He turned, however, as McAuliffe was about to finish him, and they clinched. It was just in time to prevent Ryan from failing to the ground over the post he was leaning on and which broke as McAuliffe struck Paddy.

While the latter was on the ropes cries of foul were heard, and in the ensuing confusion Ryan returned to his corner, where he had an opportunity of getting another breath. He responded when the referee disallowed the claim of foul. There were some more telling abort arm blows, and on a break being made McAuliffe poured in repeated straight right handers, which settled the mill.

Asynthmen A few friends of these helpless ones still remember them at Christmas. James Renwick, the architect, invariably sends some reich the add in the add much-beloved Mrs. Abbie Gibbons, of 55 West Forty-seventh attended the Christmas services at one of the day at Bellevue and the Charity Hospital, and more or less observance of the day elsewhere.

At the penal institutions, the workhouses and more or less observance of the day elsewhere.

At the penal institutions, the workhouses and more or less observance of the day elsewhere.

At the penal institutions, the workhouses and more or less observance of the day elsewhere.

PADDY RYAN KNOCKED OUT.

on them, got up, tried to get out of the ring, but McAuliffe kept at him. If time had not opportunely been called, Ryan would doubtless have been knocked insensible. His seconds passed Paddy to his chair under the lower rope, and he sat there a whipped man, refusing to fight any longer. His second, young Mitchell, threw up the sponge.

M'AULIFFE NOT HURT AT ALL, The only damage done was to Ryan, whose right eye was slightly closed and his under lip split. McAuliffe, when seen in his room, was free from a mark, and as fresh as when he entered the ring.

M'AULIFFE'S BATTLES IN THE BING. Joseph Peter McAuliffe, the holder of the championship of the Pacific coast since he whipped Dick Matthews last year, is a native of California and is twenty-four years of age.
He has been a temperate man all his life, tabcoing liquor to a great extent and leaving smoking entirely alone. He followed his trade as a currier in a South San Francisco smoking entirely alone. He followed his trade as currier in a South San Francisco tannery until last year, when he met "Buffalo," whose real name is Costello. This mill was under Harry Maynard's auspices and for a purse. "Buffalo" was bested in three rounds. Three months later McAulifie met Dick Matthews at the California Athletic Club, defeating him in seven rounds of hard fighting. By this battle Mc. Auliffe captured the title of heavy-weight champion of the Pacific coast, Matthews having taken that honor from Jack Brady, who had knocked out Clarence Whistler at the Wigwam. Mike Brennan, the Port Costa giant was the next man to meet McAulife, in September last, when at the California Athletic Club they battled for forty-nine rounds. Marquis of Queensbury rules, McAuliffe proving the victor. The defeat of Ryan proves that McAuliffe has a pugllistic career before him.

AMONG THE POOR AND LOWLY.

Plans for Christmas in the Charitable Homes and Asylums.

Charity as expressed in the provision made for the city's chronic poor by the municipal authorities and the various institutions for the relief of the helpless youth and old age of poverty will bestow itself in many pleasing forms.

The falling of the greatest Christian holiday on Sunday always results in a distribuwidow of a local sporting man, the rival tion of the celebration over three or four

The Old Brewery, which has been known less than when he met John L. Sullivan and since 1850 as the Five Points Mission, took lost the heavy-weight championship of the on its festal appearance last evening, when world at Mississippi City. He had his right gifts were distributed to the 500 pupils of the hand considerably bruised, the two middle day school, who get one square meal in the knuckles being knocked back from a blow he | building every day in the year, and to the 300 pupils of the Sunday-school.

But not all was festive here, for in the death of Mrs. William E. Ryer, of Eighty-sixth sent out this season.

No adults were admitted and the theatre was filled with school children. No seats were reserved, so the first-comers had the restreet and Lexington avenue, on Sunday last, the children lost a constant friend and indefatiguable worker for them. Mrs. Ryer had been a directress of the Mission for thirtyfive years, and her absence from the celebra-five years, and her absence from the celebration was felt on all sides.

For some years the celebration has been made particularly attractive by the appearance of Santa Claus, Secretary B. F. Leonard assuming the part of the children's friend in character. So long bas this custom endured that the children fairly believe Mr. Leonard to be Santa Claus himself. But on account of Mrs. Ryer's death this part of the programme was omitted last night, and after the 800 children had sung the Rev. Robert Lowry's Christmas carols for an hour or more, the gifts, wrapped in parcels, were distributed from the stage of the big school-room by the manager, the Rev. O. R. Bouton, Mrs. Skidmore, the Supermendent, and the teachers of the school. of the school.

Besides all this, each child was given a bag containing candies, nuts, raisins, cakes, an orange and an apple. All the gifts are given by the friends of the mission. On Sunday the carols will be sung again in Grace Chapel, attached to the mission, at 2.30 o'clock.

Across Paradise Park and facing towards the south, is the Five Points House of Indus-try, which has had a long career of well doing. Here 259 children, whose parents are unable to bear the burden of their care, find a pleasant home, and are given schooling and a training fitting them for the battle of life. There are about 200 other children from the

"Star of Bethlehein" B tch add
"Morning Star, in Spiendor Shining". Emerson
The Department of Charities and Correction will provide something extra for the inmates of the hospitals, almshouses, worklarge and several and they could to make the play more brilliant and attractive than ever, and the whole Imperial Burlesque Company, which acted it, could not have striven more earnestly to do well if that been a "professional matinee."

mates of the hospitals, almshouses, workhouses and asylums for a Christmas dinner, which will be served to-morrow.

There are 11,000 inmates in the institutions directly under the care of this department, and for these, according to figures furnished by Supt. Blake, 12,220 pounds of chickens and 3,455 pounds of turkey. To good quality as to age and condition. Will form the base for this dinner. For this part of the dinner $1,367,42 will be paid.

Monday will be observed at most of the institutions as a holiday. At the insane asylums the usual Christmas ball for the milder patients will be enjoyed, and at the life of Asylum and the infants' Hospital toys will be distributed.

Mr. Blake says that time was when the interest of the distributed.

Mr. Blake says that time was when the interest of the distributed.

will be distributed.

Mr. Blake says that time was when the inmates of the public institutions were made the beneficiaries of the kindly charity of many people, but the custom has gradually gone into disuse, presumably because the impression prevails that the Charity Department provides everything needed or desired. This is not so, however, as the department of the public institutions were made the beneficiaries of the kindly charity of many people, but the custom has gradually gone into disuse, presumably because the impression prevails that the Charity Department provides everything needed or desired. This is not so, however, as the department of the public institutions were made the beneficiaries of the kindly charity of many people, but the custom has gradually of many people, but the custom has gradually of many people and the St. James, Prof. and Mrs. A. Hirkness, of Brown University, Providence, are at the Glissy.

Congressman and Mrs. Ira Davenport register from Washington at the St. James, Prof. and Mrs. A. Hirkness, of Brown University, Providence, are at the Glissy.

Congressman and Mrs. Ira Davenport register from Washington at the St. James, Providence, are at the Glissy.

Congressman and Mrs. Ira Davenport register from Washington at the St. James, Providence, are at the Glissy. This is not so, however, as the department provides only necessaries, and toys and gim-cracks are not considered accessary except for the children and the inmates of the Idiot

Asylum.

A few friends of these helpless ones still remember them at Christmas. James Renwick, the architect, invariably sends some reminder at Christmas, and until quite recently the aged and much-beloved Mrs. Abbie Gibbons, of 55 West Forty-seventh street, not only gave many articles, but attended the Christmas services at one of the institutions of public charity.

3,000 DELIGHTED CHILDREN.

THE WORLD'S" BIG THEATRE PARTY TO PUPILS OF THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Marvels of Alladdin's Lamp Exhibited a the People's Theatre to Enthusiastic Little Boys and Girls-They Came Early and Applauded Vigorously-Their Tickets the Best Christmas Cards They Got.

The largest theatre party ever given in New York came off to-day at the People's Theatre. The World gave the party and several hundred "little maids from school," and corresponding hundreds of lively schoolboys were the guests. To give the poorer school-children an opportunity to see a play on the eve of Christmas, that festival above all others dear to children, was an idea with which Santa Claus inspired Tue Wost, o a fortnight ago.

Last Sunday, a day befitting the deed, the invitation was sent out through a card to public-school teachers. It announced that THE WORLD would tender a Christmas matince to 3,000 school-children, boys and girls, and that the spectacle would be "Aladdin and His Wonderful Lamp." The teachers were asked to select THE WORLD'S guests from the more deserving candidates for this novel " Reward of Merit."

The only stipulation was that the children should be under fifteen and that those whose theatre-going experience had been the least should have the call.

The delighted recipients of the bit of paste-board which admitted the bearer to the glories of the "Good Haroun Alraschid" for an afternoon bolted their noon meal with a celerity that showed that something besides hunger was preying on their juvenile appetites.

Then the merry hundreds started off in Then the merry nundreds started on in time to have got to Harlem lostead of the Bowery, and the People's Theatre was mobbed by an hilarious crowd long before the hour for the doors to open. When they did open, at 1.30, the youthful crowd streamed in past the ticket-takers like a river breaking through a dam.

a dam.

They found time, however, as they dropped the pasteboard which entitled them to a seat, to get another eard from the man at the door.

It was a dainty Christmas card which The WORLD gave to the children, with its good wishes. But although the cards were very pretty, the children all thought the ticket was a better Christmas card, the very best ward of their punctuality in a better posi-tion. But they all saw well enough. About three thousand children swarmed in the place. More than twice that number of applications were received, and the tickets were distributed with the most impartial re-gard for the several claims of the different Scheherezade never told as interesting a tale during her term of a Thousand and One Nights as story-teller to his Nibs, the Sultan, as Mauager Henderson's company portrayed from behind the footlights to the enthusiastic from behind the footlights to the enthusiastic boys and girls of the schools this afternoon. The Sultan yawned sometimes and used to think that perhaps he would be doing a kindness to himself by bow-stringing Scheherezade before she could get in another "fake."

But there was no yawn at the People's. Several hundred mouths were slightly ajar, it is true, but that was through a mistaken idea that they could take in more that way.

The chipper crowd quite forgot to be critical in the face of the transformations which Aladdin brought about by rubbing the won-cal in the lace of the transformations which Aladdin brought about by rubbing the wonderful lamp.

Of course, there is no man living who knows the plot of the play—not even the author. But this was an audience indifferent to plot. From the prelude to the final transformation scene the children liked the whole thing for hetter than recess.

thing far better than recess.

How they fidgeted in their seats and craned their small necks so as not to lose a single spangle and how they "Ah-ed" and "Oh-ed" when Aladdin and one of the boys, Za-lam-bo, come home so very early in the morning considerably the worse for wear and have a jolly time under his mother-in-law's window, the boys laughed and thought that Aladdin was "playing hookey" in great were tickled to death at the sudden appa-

Miss Jennie Reeves performed the part of Aladdin to the immense satisfaction of the audience. But that weird functionary, "Chow-Chow, the magician," known in private life as Mr. Richard Golden, took the cake when, after the prologue, he stepped before the children and tickled their literary and critical feasibles he short ween which and critical faculties by a short poem which

The story of Aladdin's lamp Is what you hear to-day A magle 1 mp which treasures brought If rubbed in either way.

THE WORLD on this glad Christmas Eve, THE WORLD which you all read, as been for you, dear boys and girls, Aladdin's lamp indeed,

Thanks to THE WORLD, you all shall see The wonders of the age
When talries, sprites and magic lamps
And spooks were all the rage.

And still there's an Aladdin's lamp For each of you to-day, It's found in good hard work; and now We'll go on with the play.

The children present were the flower of the public educational flock, so they heartily ap-proved of the moral, and The World's name stirred them into generous applicate.

Altogether it was another big success for The Would. The readiness with which the teachers of the public schools in New York and Brooklyn have co-operated in the schem shows how they appreciated it.

Messrs. Henderson and Noel did all they

With others at the St. James are A. C. Maynard of San Francisco, and H. Graham Nicols, of Chi Joseph B. Reading, of San Francisco, a lawyer

At the Grand are Commander T. Rogies, U. S. N., Lieut, Jo'n A. Perry, U. S. N., and Lieut, C. J. Balley, U. S. N. Prince of College has let loose her undergrad-nates, and their names are written on almost every hotel register in town.

Three capitalists are new at the Hoffman-Northrop, of Chicago; A. C. Tyier, of Ne anon, and Mark A. Smith, of Arizona.

anon, and Mark A. Smith, of Arizona.

Gus H. Tilden, of New Lebanon, is among those who are contesting the will of the late Sangel J. Tilden, and makes the St. James his stopping place while in town.

At two rival notes are two men who have lately become rivels—Frank J. Sullivan and C. N. Felton, who claim has same seat in Congress. Mr. Sullivan is awith Fifth Avenue, while Mr. Felton puts up at the Hoffman.

A BOGUS LAWYER SNARED

Arrest of the Author of the Scandal in the District-Attorney's Office.

"You couldn't have brought me a more acceptable Christmas present Phil," was the greeting which Detective-Sergt. Reilly got from Assistant District-Attorney Fitzgerald this morning, when Reilly told him that Charles A. Curtis, of Jersey City, was awaiting the coming of the ex-Senator in the lat-ter's office in the General Sessions Building. Curtis is a blonde-whiskered young man, about twenty-seven years old, who has been masquerading as a Philadelphia hwyer in the Sessional during the just month, and he was arrested on four indictments for grand lar-

He was apprehended at his home in Third street, Jersey City, last evening, and Detec-tive Reilly, of the District Attorney's office, coaxed him over to this city carly this morn

Assistant District-Attorney Fitzgerald's joy at the capture is explained by the fact that urtis is the man who is responsible for the statement that Fitzgerald accepted fees to the amount of $128.50 to secure the release of John Nuttall, of 413 Van Brout street, South

Brooklyn, on suspended seatence.

Curtis told attaches of the court that he is a nephew of Quaranthe Commissioner Jolin A. Nichol. The latter denies this. Curtis has never been admitted to practice at the Bar.
As a collector of the Provident Life Association, of this city, he is accused of having appropriated about $400.

He had a similar esperience, it is alleged, with a worthless check passed in Jersey City. It is also related that he swindled Mr. Bacon.

counsel for the Quarantine Commission, of $50 on the strength of his relationship with Commissioner Nichols.

He will find a hard man to deal with in Mr. Fitzgerald, and Recorder Smyth intimated that he would receive no mercy from him. Mr. Fitzgerald was closeted with Curtis for an hour, and reported, as the result of his ex-amination, that no one connected with the District-Attorney's office had been implicated in receiving fees. The young man was committed to the PUPILS GIVE A MATINEE. Les Precleuses Ridicules" and "Winter"

Tale" by Members of Mr. Sargent's School. The members of Mr. Franklin H. Sargent's New York School of Acting gave an extremely interesting matince yesterday, producing Molière's "Les Precieuses Ridicules" and Act IV. of "The Winter's Tale." Everything that could be done in the way of scenic effect to enhance the value of the production was done, but the young student-actors entered so thoroughly into the spirit of their work and evinced so unmistakably the signs of Mr. Sargent's careful tuition that the success of the entertainment was due to them entirely, and not to the appointments.

ments.

The novelty of the performance was "The Winter's Tale," in which some delightfully rural pictures were presented. The sheperds and shepherdesses in their frolics were marvellously natural, and their larghter seemed to be entirely spontaneous. Miss Elsie Lombard was Perditn, and she was the least interesting feature of the performance. Her gestures were extremely labored and her utterances affected. erances affected terances affected.

Young Mr. Ernest Sterner made a capital Autolyeus, his impersonation of the rogue being extremely amusing. Disguised as the peddler, he sang in tune which is an extremely unusual occurrence with actors who make no specialty of their voices. 'Mr. Alfred Young's Florizel was a careful performance, and Mr. Buckland, as the old shepherd, did nicely.

and Mr. Buckland, as the old shepherd, did nicely, In "Les Preceieuses Ridicules" Miss Vida Croly and Miss Harriet Ford, an extremely handsome young lady, played the parts of Madelon and Cathot. Mr. Harold Harrison, who played Gorgibus, has a great deal to learn. He would have been better as one of the porters the porters.

THEY WANT FIVE DAYS' PAY.

United Labor Party Election Inspectors Considering How to Enforce Their Claim.

A meeting of the United Labor party inspectors of election was held last night at Columbia Hall, 1210 First avenue, near Sixtyfifth street. They claim that they are entitled to five days' pay like the other inspec tors, although they served only one day, and the object of the meeting was to take action to enforce their claim.

It was decided to form a temporary organization. Moses B. Cohen and James H. Dillon were elected temporary Chairman and Secretary, respectively.

Among those present were Lawyers Robert

Among those present were Lawyers Robert N. Waite and Morris W. Hart, defeated candidate of the party for Judge of the City Court, who will prosecute the claims in conjunction with such other counsel as may be It was resolved to hold another meeting at the same place on Thursday evening, Dec. 29.

Judge Martine's Debut. Judge Martine will not make his debut on th General Sessions beach until February, when he will preside in Part III. He will not have an op-portunity to charge a Grand Jury until June.

Capt. Stephenson's Command. Capt. John T. Stephenson, who was promoted from the rank of sergeant by the Police Board yesterday, has taken command of the Tremont police. He succeeds both to the rank and precinct of Capi. Robbins, retired.

REAL ESTATE.

wishes his many patrons a

MERRY CHRISTMAS.

and for all who have no homes of their own the problem how to get one. Make Christmas of 1887 merry by buying a

There's none so lowly that where 'er thay roam
Can find a spot on earth so dear as home.
One of their own is Fortune's dearest gitt,
Which as may gain by indu try and thrift.
Landlords e in only be escaped, you understand,
By assing up and buying lots of land.
Own your own lot and asson will come the day.
A home is yours for whist in rout you'd pay.

"The mill can never arind
With the water that is passed."

I offer homes

Bath Beach Junction,

LOTS AT $150 AND UPWARD.

ALSO, LOTS ON THE NICHOLAS N. WYCKOFF FARM,

18TH WARD, BROOKLYN.

PAYABLE $20 MONTHLY.

WYCKOFF-KINGSLAND FARM,

$625 AND UPWARD.

PAYABLE $20 MONTHLY.

ALL OF MY TITLES ARE POSITIVELY INSURED, WITHOUT EXPENSE TO BUYER, BY

home."
For maps apply to Jeve, Johnson, jr., No. 60
Liberty st., New Yor., 393 Fulton st., Broomlyn, or at the offices on the various poperties.

arrived this morning by the steamship Aller. Here

EGREATEST OF SUNDAY PAPERS.

SEE THE

SUNDAY WORLD

For Bright and Interesting Reading on

CHRISTMAS

HERE ARE A FEW OF THE FEATURES:

NIGHT IN BELLEVUE HOSPITAL. AMONG NEW YORK THIEVES.

FAITH CURE AND ITS FOLLOWERS.

FAVORITE BOOKS OF POPULAR PREACHERS. NOTED CLUB AND FAMILY COOKS. A WORLD REPORTER'S TIGER HUNT. COPIES OF RECENT GREAT PAINTINGS.

ONLY THREE CENTS.

A MAGAZINE AND NEWSPAPER COMBINED.

JERE. JOHNSON, JR.,

within easy reach of all that will save at Woodside Heights. SALVATOR On Draught at all my Customers' During the Holidays.

PAYABLE $10 MONTHLY.

$380 AND UPWARD.

ALSO, LOTS ON THE

TON ABOVE PROPERTIES 10 PER CENT. DISCOUNT WILL BE ALLOWED

Remember,

THE TITLE GUARANTEE AND TRUST CO.

CAPITAL $800,000.

Look to it that next Ch istoms finds you surrounded by a lunpy family singing:

"Home, sweet home, there's no place like home."

Ernst Possart, the distinguished German actor and makes the coffee and tea 50 PER CENT. BET-TER than any other method THE ONLY PERVECTION IN THE WORLD. TAKE NO OTHER. 1 Warren w .. N. Y. FRANK RICKER. RINTING JOS. WATSON, INTEREST AND DIVIDEND NOTICES HEARING RESTORED

CITIZENS' SAVINGS BANK OF THE CITY OF New York, Nos. 56 and 55 Rowery, corner Canal st. FIFTY, FHTTH BEMI-ANNUAL DIVIDEND OF INTEREST.—The trustees bave ordered that interest at the rate of TH:EE AND ONE-HALF (3½) Per Cent. per annum be paid to depositive on and atter Jan. 16, on all sums of 85-and up to $3,090-which have remained on deposit for the three or six months ending Doc. 31, 1887.

EDWARD A QUINTARD, President.

HENRY HASLER, Secretary, CHARLES W. HELD, Cashier. RELIGIOUS NOTICES. CHRISTMAS SERVICES TO MORROW, ST. AUgustine's, Houston st., between the Bowerr and 2d ave. -6.30, 7.3 , 10.30 A. M.: 5 and 7.30 P. M. Strangers cordially welcome. All seats free.

GOOD WORDS FOR COHNFELD. Former Employees of the Absent Feather Merchant Rise in His Defense. The old employees of Isidor Cohnfeld have good word to say for the absconding feather merchant, notwithstanding the charges made against him by his creditors. Mr. Cohnfeld employed nearly five hun dred hands, mostly women and girls, and his workshops are said to have been the most cheerful and best ventilated in the city.

This morning Miss Mannie Smith, of 18 24 Fulton street, and Miss Annie Morris, of 24 Fulton street, lately forewomen in the assorting and dveing departments, called at the office of The World. They said they were deputed by the whole body of employees of Mr. Cohnfeld to deprecate the publication of the harsh things said against Mr. Cohnfeld by his ardditors. by his creditors.

Mr. Cohnfeld, they said, paid the best wages in the city and treated his work people well in every respect. Since his departure the place had been closed and some two hundred of his hands were out of employ-

There are nearly twenty other feather houses in the city, but all are very small and they only pay 20 cents a dozen where Mr. Cohnfeld paid 50 cents. Those who get work can earn but $6 or $7, instead of $16 or $18 as heretofore.

The Committee described the attack on the The Committee described the attack on the absent Cohnfield to the jesiousy and eumity of the rural feather manufacturers. If Mr. Cohnfeld has a fair show, they say, he will come back, pay his debts and become once more a large and liberal employer of skilled labor.

New York Retween Two Storms.

"The elements are getting in their fine work all over the country," said the weather manipulator on the Equitable Building's roof tule morning. on the Equinable Bulleting's 700 this morning.

"A heavy snowstorm is raging in the lake region and is on its way here. It will probably reach hereto-night, but, as the thermometer will be slightly higher during the next tweaty-four hours, we slightly probably have a mixture of show and rain.

"The South Atlantic States are being flooded to-day by a remarkably heavy rainstorm. This storm is on its way here, and if it arrives about the same time that the snowsorm does—and it is apt to—we will get our share of wet. New York is betwirt and between the present storm centres." A CHRISTMAS STORY BY BILL NYE.

Davidson Escapes Indictment. Ex-Sheriff Alexander V. Davidson has escaped a him was examined by the District-Attorney last week, but the evidence was not produced before the Grand Jury.

A Dull Day Dewntown. Few brokers were downtown to-day. The Stock Exchange was closed, and in the Consolidated Exchange only tracing in oil was allowed. The buils in oil made a day of it, running prices up from say to say.

YEAR CALLS! CURE THE DEAF PECK'S IMPROVED PAT. CUSHIONED TUBULAR EAR DRUMS rost are the hearing in all cases where the audit by serve is not purelyzed. Often successful in cases promuned incurable, always in

CITY POLICY

"Old Travelers" Ins. Co. of Hartford, Conn.

DONT YOUTHINK

INS.CO. CARRY ALL MY RISKS.

THESE ELEVATED ROADS ARE DANGEROUS-SIR?

OH YASS . UNDOUBTEDLY - BUT THE TRAVELERS

FIVE DOLLARS

Will purchase $5,000 Insurance against death by accident, and $25 per week for disabiling injury (not exceeding twenty-six weeks on a single accident, for one year, as follows:

"This Policy covers injuries, received, wells traveiling by regain; lines of passenger convexance between research NEW YORK CITY BR GRLYN. LONG ISLAND CITY BERSEY CITY, HOBOKEN and STATEN ISLAND, or on steps or stairways leading to points of departure thereof." FORM OF APPLICATION.

FORM OF APPLICATION.

Fill blank and send to Office for Policy.

NEW YORK OFFICE, 140 BROADWAY.

R. M. JOHNSON, Ceneral Agent.

CEORGE EHRET'S

GEORGE EHRET'S HELL GATE BREWERY,

East 92d and 93d Sts., Between 2d and 3d Aves.

ONE MINUTE

COFFEE

AND TEAPORS.

rith pulverized coffee and

DEAL PROME CONSULTATION PREE.

Micro-Audiphone Co., 1286 Broadway.

LUDWIG BAUMANN & CO., NOS. 512, 514 STH AVE. BET, 35TH AND 36TH STS. GREAT HOLIDAY Sate now in progress of FURNITURE and CARPETS. Terms-CASH or CREDIT on your own

OPEN EVENINGS UNTIL 9 O'CLOCK. BANKING AND FINANCIAL.

1ST CONSOL GOLD 6S. DUE 1927, INTEREST JANUARY AND

ST. LOUIS AND CHICAGO

JULY, AND PAYABLE IN NEW YORK. THE ISSUE OF THESE BONDS IS LIMITED TO STO, 000 PER MILE, SECURED BY ALL THE PROPERTY AND FRANCHISES OF THE COM-PANY. THIS IS A PIRST-CLASS PROPERTY, PERE FROM FLOATING DEET, HAVING NO CAR-TRUST BONDS OR CONSTRUCTION ACCOUNT OF ANY DESCRIPTION, CIRCULAR CONTAINING FINANCIAL REPORT SHOWING LARGE SURPLUS KARNINGS OVER INTEREST CHARGES AND OTHER PARTICULARS CAN BE HAD ON APPLICATION TO THE UNDERSIGNED. SIMULTANEOUS ISSUE OF THESE BONDS IS MADE IN NEW YORK, BOSTON AND CHICAGO.

FRANK C. HOLLINS & CO., 11 WALL ST., NEW YORK CITY.

PIANOS AND ORGANS.

ESTEY PIAI

A NUMBER OF GRAND, upright and square places of our make, slightly used, almost as good as new, and fully warranted, will be sold at a liberal reduction from regular prices; planos to rent. Wm. Knabe & Oa, 112 5th ave., above 16th st.

THE "OPERA" PIANO, the most popular and the finest in the market, only $10 monthly until paids one quarter's music lessons free; rent only $5; send of catalogue. Peek & Son, 210 West 47th st., corner B'way. NEW PUBLICATIONS.

TWELVE TIMES ONE.

ATH BURY, author of "Seven Listle Maids," water-outer drawings. 440, boards, $1.78.

WORTHINGTON'S ANNUAL lilustrated with upward of 500 origited in colors. 4to, boards, $1.50.

Worthington Co., 747 B'way, N. Y.